

NEWS AND HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO RICHMOND SOCIETY

SCHOOL SET RETURNS TO HOMES THIS WEEK

Four Prominent Weddings on the Social Calendar. Dance Wednesday Evening at Tray-Boy Studio. Usual Informal Hop at Country Club.

By Elizabeth Witt.

This is a week of prodigious returns. From every corner of the school earth the immigration has started and within the seven days each fiasco will be complete, and the cars that ride out on Sunday afternoon will cease to carry empty back seats.

Some of them are girls just back from their first year at boarding school, with their hair still warm from the back of their necks. They have tasted of the first sweetness of independence and the swag they feel is shown in the hang of their skirts and the turn of the tongues. Life overflowing, newly discovered, fairly sizzles from a never-ending conversation. But even so—some of them are boys—and you have read seventeen. The snaky glide that long-legged youths seemed to be everlastingly employing to get out from under the pushed-in hats that showed every sign that their owners were going down for the last time, has given way to the animated kangaroo hop that is beginning to show in their walk. All of them are young, and that realization has started more than one parent "hopping" to stations to bring that spirit back with them.

Some of them come fresh from the hidden places of the student and their eyes are wide with the need they have seen and their lips are set with the determination to set it right. There are those who have lit their candles from so many lights that they are still dulled with the question of the brightest. And there are those who are eager to serve the never-wavering light of the one they hold in their hands. All of them will come back—and this is the week.

Monday afternoon tea will be served informally at the Woman's Club from 4 to 6 o'clock, in the club parlors.

Monday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, there will be two weddings. The marriage of Miss Anne Warren to James Augustine will take place at St. Stephen's Church, in Westhampton. At the home of her brother, Dr. Joseph Geisinger, the wedding of Miss Mary Geisinger will be solemnized. Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell will perform the ceremony.

Mrs. B. M. Gwathmey and Mrs. John Harwood will be hostesses at a luncheon in honor of Miss Mary Shepherd at the Rose Bowl Inn, Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock.

The younger set has arranged a dance on Wednesday evening at the Tray-Boy Studio, from 9 to 2 o'clock. Prominent society women will act as chaperones.

On Thursday Mrs. A. L. Gray is entertaining the bridal party for the wedding of Miss Mary Shepherd at a luncheon at the Commonwealth Club.

The wedding of Mrs. Charles E. Whitlock, Jr., will be celebrated quietly at Holy Trinity Church on Thursday, in the morning chapel.

Friday evening Misses Elizabeth Ingles and Maude Randolph Watkins will be guests of honor at a dance at the Woman's Club, at 9 o'clock.

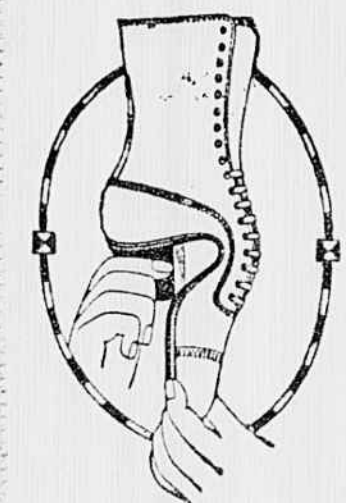

Saturday evening Miss Priscilla Shepherd will give a buffet supper in honor of Miss Mary Shepherd, at her home in Dumbarton. The guests will go from there to the Country Club.

There will be the usual informal dance at the Country Club Saturday night.

Augustine-Scott.

Vases of lilies decorated the altar of St. Paul's Church yesterday for the wedding of Miss Fannie Carter Scott, daughter of Judge and Mrs. R. Carter Scott, and Harry Hamilton Augustine, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Augustine. The marriage was celebrated at noon and Rev. W. Russell Bowte performed the ceremony. The bride entered the church with her father who gave her in marriage. She was crowned in white chiffon and her veil was of real rose point lace caught across the front with a band of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss

Ellen Scott, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, in a dress of French blue chiffon beaded in the same color, and she wore a picture hat of the French blue lined with pale pink and edged around the crown with flowers of the two shades. She carried an arm bouquet of flowers of the pastel shades of pink, blue and lavender. The two little flower girls were dressed of pink and white organdie combined with cream lace and natural colored straw hats trimmed with summer flowers. They carried hat baskets of the pastel shades of pink and lavender and blue flow-

How Women's Feet Differ

Nothing is more individual than the shape of women's feet. Two women may be fitted in the same size of shoe; one may have high arches, the other low arches. Sometimes a woman's feet are a trifle larger than her right arch in ordinary shoes and suffer because of the indistinct support under the arch.

The task of fitting her properly, likewise most women in steel-shanked shoes is often impossible. Steel-shanked shoes are made with inflexible arches, and require your feet to fit them, you can't adjust them to your individual needs. That is one reason for the Cantilever Shoe, a good-looking shoe fashioned with a flexible arch.

AS IF MADE FOR YOU. Allow us to show you in what good-looking Cantilevers we can give to your individual fit, support and flexibility.
